CHEERING DISPLAY OF DETERMINATION AMONG BRITISH FORCES PROSPECTS FROM ALLY VIEWPOINT REPORTED SATISFACTORY

IN THE VICINITY OF ALBERT THE GERMANS REPULSED BY THE BRITISH HAVE BEGUN "DIGGING THEMSELVES IN" ALONG THE LINE.

GREAT CONFLICT SLACKENED FOR A TIME MAY BREAK FORTH AGAIN IN ADDED FURY GERMANS BRINGING UP HEAVY ARTILLERY

FRENCH RESIST DESPERATELY. THE NIGHT WAS COMPARATIVELY QUIET. STRONG GERMAN PATROL FORCED BRITISH WITHDRAWAL IN THE ARRAS REGION.

British Army Headquarters, March 30.—(Associated Press Cable)—The situation today from the Entente viewpoint is reported more satisfactory. Along the British section of the battlefield last night there was comparative quiet. The British lines have been strengthened rapidly in every quarter on the front. There is a most heartening display of determination and optimism.

In the vicinity of Albert the Germans today were reported to be digging themselves in along the line.

For a brief space the tide of conflict has slackened, but any moment it may set in again. When the Germans have brought forward their artillery and overhauled their fighting machine the struggle will be renewed perhaps with greater ferocity than before.

Yesterday afternoon the enemy had a small success south of the Luce river on the British right flank. Strong German forces attacking captured Mezieres and also Maison Blanche. The British immediately organized a counter attack and pushed forward determinedly against the Germans.

At one point the attacking troops were held up by machine gun fire but other forces pressed on doggedly. The Germans opposed with great strength and were too well protected and the British were forced to abandon the effort after a hard struggle during which 25 Germans were taken prisoner in hand to hand fighting. The loss of these positions does not alter the situation materially and the hold on all the Luce valley is considered satisfactory.

GERMANS BRINGING UP ARTILLERY

London, March 30.—(Associated Press Cable)—The Germans are still rushing forward artillery and reorganizing their forces Reuters' correspondent at British headquarters telegraphs. The slowing down in the battle, he says, probably is only a lull before another storm of still greater intensity.

The situation on the British sector of the new battlefield this morning was more satisfactory from the allied standpoint. The night was comparatively quiet.

Strong enemy patrols in the Arras sector penetrated the British first line at Arleux and forced the point to withdraw after intense fighting. This appears to be the only change in the line near Arras.

A spectacular maneuver by the British command just after the capture of Roeux occurred. A body of British troops was cut off when the Germans enveloped Rueux Thursday. Three hundred men who clung to the village in the face of bitter onslaught, under cover of darkness were withdrawn successfully through a gap torn in the enemy line.

FRENCH RESIST DESPERATELY

Paris, March 30.—(Associated Press Cable)—French troops supported by reserves are offering desperate resistance to the powerful assaults of the enemy. The battle which was resumed with renewed violence during the night is progressing on a front 25 miles from Moreuil to beyond Lassigny.

BRITISH ARE PRESSED BACK

London, March 30.—(Associated Press Cable)—The Germans attacking yesterday at Demuin and Mezieres pressed back the British from Mezieres, the war office announces.

All the enemy's attempts to capture Demuin broke down after sharp fighting which lasted throughout the afternoon.

OPERATED IN 'PLANE PLANT' PACKING HOUSE WORKERS' WAGE GIVEN INCREASE

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Newark, N. J., March 30.—Admission that a group of German spies have been employed in the plant of the Curtis engineering corporation at Hempstead, N. Y., on Long Island, has been obtained from Mrs. Lydia White, a woman arrested today with blue prints of airplanes in her possession, the police announce.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Chicago, March 30.—The 8 hour day wage increase of $1 a day and equal pay for like work by men and women were granted to Chicago packing house employees today by Judge Samuel Alchuler, arbitrator in the recent wage hearings here.
Several other demands of the workers also were granted.

Representative William P. Borland, of Kansas City, was responsible for the saving of an hour's daylight by introducing the Daylight Saving bill in Congress.

MORE BODIES ARE FOUND IN PARIS RUINS

Toll of German Long Range Gun, a Shell of Which Hit Church, Includes 54 Women.

(By Associated Press Cable)
Paris, March 30.—Rescue parties at work in the church which was struck yesterday by a shell from a German long range gun have found more bodies. It is known now that 54 women were killed.

An official statement issued in Paris last night said 75 persons had been killed and 90 persons, most of them women and children, wounded by a shell which fell on a church in the region of Paris.

WEATHER

Washington, March 30.—The weather predictions for the week beginning Monday issued today are:

Ohio Valley and Tennessee—No present prospect for any considerable amount of precipitation. Probably somewhat colder Monday night and Tuesday and moderate temperature thereafter.

DEATH WILL BE PENALTY FOR ESPIONAGE

Congress Preparing to Enact Necessary Legislation.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 30.—The death penalty for many acts of espionage will be proposed in legislation to be brought before Congress. Senator Overman, active head of the Senate Judiciary Committee, said today after hearing testimony of several government agents in charge of anti-spy work.

CLEAN SHAVE FOR TROOPERS SENT ABROAD

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 30.—Clean shaven faces in the army will add several million dollars to the annual cost of military establishments. Official announcement was made at the War Department today that one razor, one steel mirror and shaving brush would be issued hereafter to every enlisted man ordered to Europe.

SHIP BOARD EXCEEDS ITS WORK PLANNED

Fifty-two Thousand Tons in Excess of Schedule, Launched.

Completed Ship Results Fall Behind Schedule.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 30.—The shipbuilding board exceeded its launching program in March by 52,000 tons, but fell behind in its schedule of completed ships owing to difficulties in obtaining steel plates.

Figures given out today showed that 36 ships of 272,786 tons were launched and 29 of 162,200 tons were completed and delivered.

At the beginning of the month it was announced it was hoped to launch 35 ships of 220,591 tons during March and to deliver 23 ships of 188,275 tons.

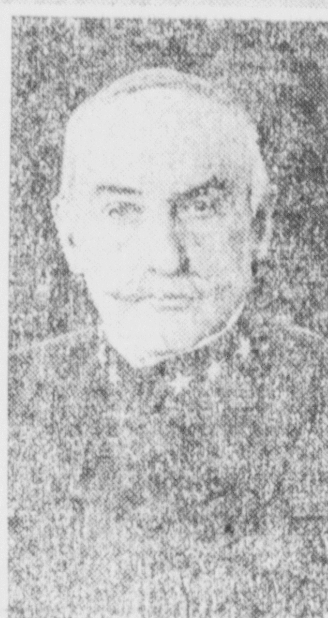

HEAVY LOSSES IN CANADIAN LINE TROOPS

Units of the Dominion Suffer Heavy Losses in Big Battle.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Boston, March 30.—Casualties among Canadian units with the allied forces on the western front have been exceedingly heavy, according to official advices from Ottawa to the British and Canadian recruiting headquarters. The message stated the biggest casualty list of the war would be issued shortly by the Canadian War Department and this would include the names of a great number of men who had enlisted from New England.

ROADS ARE CLOGGED WITH GERMAN DEAD

ADMIRAL BENSON

ADMIRAL BENSON
Admiral William S. Benson, Chief of Naval Operations, is the man really responsible for the splendid condition of the United States Navy. The "clean bill of health" given the navy by the House Naval Affairs Committee, was due entirely to the work of Admiral Benson, who has toiled early and late, Sundays and holidays, at his task of getting ready for war. Admiral Benson is sixty-two years old, but a firm believer in the maxim of youth. He has surrounded himself with a staff of young men to help him in the hard work of war, but he can outwork any of the youngsters at any time. Here are a few of his many titles: Director of the Naval War College, Director of Naval Intelligence, Director of the office of gunnery exercises and engineering performances, Director of the Naval Communication Service, Director of the Naval Aeronautical Services and all other branches of the navy concerned directly in its military efficiency.

PRO-GERMANS KISS THE FLAG

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Coshocton, O., March 30.—A mob of 500 to 600 persons late last night and early this morning visited 16 homes in this city and forced 25 or 30 alleged pro-Germans to kiss the stars and stripes and say "to hell with the Kaiser."

Citizens of Coshocton have been aroused for several weeks over reports that Germans of the county were holding many secret meetings in Coshocton and south of the city.

Members of the mob before breaking up this morning announced that other alleged pro-German homes would be visited Monday night.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 30.—Major General J. Franklin Bell has passed his medical examination for active service, it was announced today at the War Department.
He has been commander of the 77th National Army Division at Camp Upton, and recently returned from France.

Prisoners Draw Growsome Pictures of Horrors Behind the Lines.

Fresh Troops Compelled to March Through Piles of German Slain.

Air Polluted With the Odor of Death and Wells Are Poisoned.

(Associated Press Cable)
London, March 30.—The Morning Post correspondent in France draws a gruesome picture of battlefield conditions. "Prisoners state that the countryside is full of bodies and that the air is horrible with the odor of death.

"Wells cannot be used. The ruined villages are impossible as billets because they are strewn with German dead. There are great piles of bodies along the roads and between them. The enemy has only recently found time to bury any of his dead.

"The spectacle of the battlefield carpeted with the bodies of their comrades has affected fresh troops who in this way discovered to their surprise that the British are not too weak to fight. Prisoners say that the British endurance and skill in fighting is delaying the progress of the German army."

HEAVY ROAR OF ARTILLERY IS PERSISTENT

Steadily for Over Ten Hours Monstrous Fieldpieces of the Allies Have Been Firing Into Ranks of Enemy.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Canadian Army Headquarters, March 30.—(By Canadian Press Limited) — From early last night until six this morning the noise of guns has been persistent upon the whole front from the south to Hill 70 in the north. Steadily for over 10 hours our heaviest field guns, trench mortars and machine guns maintained their fire on thousands of yards of front against the enemy trenches.

At eleven o'clock and again at five-thirty our artillery fire increased to battle intensity, the enemy assembly and concentration areas and communication roads being raked with creeping barrages. The intensity and duration of the fire was such that no enemy attacks developed north of Oppy.

SPLENDID WORK BY LOCAL UNIT OF RED CROSS

The Fayette County Chapter of the American Red Cross makes wonderful showing in the report of the work accomplished from the fifteenth of February until the thirty-first of March. Both the quantity and the quality of the work prove that Fayette's chapter is taking its place and doing its share as one of the big war winning factors—that there are many women of the county showing their mettle and, with patriotism and usefulness, giving up personal interests and pleasures to the demands of this great organization.

The shipment is one which testifies to many hours and days of toil and a woman's fight at home—a fight in which the woman at the Red Cross headquarters pours out her energies, side by side with the gallant soldier, in service vitally important if more common-place.

It is the proud privilege of every woman to help in these Red Cross activities and thereby to show her gratitude for the soldiers' sacrifices and provide supplies without which many of our boys would not return.

There are yet many women to enlist in active Red Cross service. The indefatigable Red Cross workers have done wonders. They can do more according to the additional help given. If ever there was a spur to women's activities it is found in the present terrible combat now being waged on the European battlefields.

The Report.
The following report has been submitted by Mrs. Eva J. Penn, chairman of the Red Cross workshop, and covers the shipments forwarded to the Lake Division for immediate shipment to Europe since the 15th of February and the work now on hand.

Hospital Supplies — 1520 bed shirts shipped; 88 bed shirts on hands finished and ready for shipment.

Miscellaneous boxes shipped containing 1 bath robe; 25 ambulance pillows; 90 property bags.

Unfinished bed shirts, 45.
Knitted Articles — 127 sweaters, 180 pairs of socks, 20 scarfs, 4 pairs of wristlets, 5 helmets shipped.

On hands and finished ready for the next box — 4 sweaters; 52 pairs of socks.
—There are a number of hospital garments throughout the county in process of construction and a large number of knitted articles yet out.

Everything is moving on splendidly at the workshop under the constant supervision of Mrs. Penn and her corps of assisting chairmen. The one thing now needed is more workers. It is impossible to ship across seas fast enough to meet the tremendous demands of the hour.

C. N. D. APPOINTS COUNTY CHAIRMAN

The Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense has appointed Mrs. Bertha S. Miller as county chairman of the Food Department to take up definite important branches under the Council's jurisdiction.

Township chairmen will be appointed later.

Mrs. C. Graham Beckel has been appointed chairman of Child Welfare, and Mrs. Martha Mark chairman of Educational propaganda.

CANADIAN SOLDIER WILL LECTURE HERE

The opportunity to hear a Canadian soldier; one who has served in the front line trenches for three years and sustained a number of wounds, will be given the local public Monday night, when Private R. A. Quigley, of the Canadian Army, delivers an address at the High School Auditorium.

Private Quigley has gone "over the top" and had thrilling experiences of which he will relate.
The proceeds are for the Red Cross.

The Lyman H. Howe pictures at High School Auditorium Tuesday evening are all new. Alaska, China. Thrilling tests of gigantic war caterpillars in Uncle Sam's army. Capturing mountain lions. Coney Island by day and night. Many other big new features.

Herald "Want Ads." are the salesmen who work day and night.

EASTER SERVICES KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

Garfield Commandery, No. 28, Knights Templar will hold the annual Easter services at the Masonic Temple, Sunday afternoon at half past two o'clock.

The Sir Knights will attend in full uniform, except sword.

Rev. and Sir Knight Thomas W. Locke, of Columbus, will deliver the sermon and Mrs. Herbert Wilson, a prominent vocalist of Greenfield, will sing.

The services will be beautifully symbolic of the day. All Masons and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

AUCTION AND DANCE BENEFIT OF RED CROSS

Much interest is aroused by the announcement that an auction and dance will be given under the auspices of the Pythian Sisters and the Knights of Pythias on Wednesday evening, April the tenth, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Auctions have been extremely successful as the means of raising money for the Red Cross and at the same time giving people spicy entertainment. Combined with the added attraction of the dance a big crowd and a big financial return is assured.

The auction will be held on the first floor at 7:30; the dance on the second floor at 9:00.

There will be no admission charged for the auction and only the small sum of twenty-five cents for the dance.

Donations of any kind will be welcomed and it is hoped that people will respect liberally in this move towards helping the Red Cross. Phone Gregg's shoe store in regard to your donations.

BAPTIST CHURCH FRIDAY EVENING

The Sugar Creek Baptist church attended the closing meeting of the pre-Easter services at the First Baptist church last night.

Their presence and their inspiring song was much enjoyed and a great help.

The auditorium was filled. One of the marked features of the meetings has been the uniformly large attendance and deep spiritual interest. Five adults have presented themselves for church membership. Others are expected. The church has been greatly strengthened in every way.

The subject of the pastor's sermon last night was "Desiring and Seeking the Lord," and was a timely discussion of the supreme quest of the soul.

At the close of the sermon Sunday night there will be baptism.

HAVE SEED CORN DO NOT KNOW IT

A farmer who is recognized as being in close touch with the seed corn situation states that a great many Fayette county farmers who are beginning to indulge in a wild scramble for seed corn have plenty of seed corn of a type probably superior to corn for which they will pay $5 to $8 per bushel.

There are large numbers of good seed ears scattered through much of the average corn; and all that is necessary to obtain the seed is a little careful selection and proper tests.

"Some farmers can make $10 to $20 per day by testing corn for themselves and save unnecessary outlay for corn which is not as good as their own growing," declared the farmer.

DEATH BRINGS SHOCK TO MANY FRIENDS

Friends in this city were shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. T. P. Long of Jamestown, mother of Mrs. Jesse Hankins, of Sedalia, at the Springs at Martinsville, Ind., Thursday.

The body was brought back to the home in Jamestown Friday night. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the home.

DON'T FORGET TO TURN UP CLOCK

Tonight at eight o'clock is the time when Washington and Fayette county citizens will advance their clocks and watches just one hour—and then forget about the change of time and go right ahead and "work by the watch" just as heretofore.

If all persons turn their watches and clocks forward promptly there will be little confusion.

It is predicted that the new change of time will be immensely popular with local citizens.

SABINA DEFEATS Y. M. C. A. TEAM

Sabina defeated the "Y" basketball team Friday night on the Sabina floor 13 to 11. At the end of the first quarter the score stood 2 each, all points coming from foul goals made by Homer Smith. "Y" left forward and Gaskins, Sabina, right forward. Neither team scored a point in second quarter. In the second half Sabina secured 11 points and the "Y" 9, which gave them the victory by the scant margin of two points.

Smith and Hays starred for the local team, and McCullough and Gaskins for Sabina.

The line-ups were: for the "Y", H. Smith, lf; Hay rf; Starr, c; O'Brian lg; P. Smith, rg; for Sabina, McCullough, lf; Gaskins, rf; Thorpe, c; Sears, rg; Shepherd, lg.

Myers of Washington referred the contest.

While the Washington boys were eating lunch in a Sabina restaurant some sneak thief stole the "Y" basketball and a sweater belonging to one of the boys.

NURSES WANTED BY THE RED CROSS FOR SERVICE ABROAD

Another urgent appeal for registration of more nurses was issued yesterday by Miss Mary M. Roberts, director of nursing, Lake Division, American Red Cross. The appeal was made in response to Surgeon General Gorgas' recent request that the Red Cross supply 5,000 nurses before June 1 for service in American military hospitals in the United States and abroad.

"More than 7,000 nurses have been enrolled by the Red Cross since the United States became a participant in the war," said Miss Roberts today, "but as the war progresses, the imperative need for a greater army of nurses grows daily."

"An earnest appeal is made to the registered nurses of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky to volunteer for this service. We also appeal to the public and to the physicians employing these nurses to make it possible for them, without too great a sacrifice, to hold themselves in readiness to respond to the call of their country."

"A great responsibility rests upon the nurses of the country. They are the only group of women recognized as a part of the military establishment. While thousands of nurses will be needed, the number is relatively small compared with the number of women in America who should stand back of them and make possible the service for which they are so greatly needed."

"No finer patriotic service can be rendered by well educated young women anywhere, than that of the students in schools for nurses who are definitely preparing for the larger professional field of the graduate nurse."

TWO MORE FINED $200 AND COSTS

Two more convictions have added to the long list in the efforts of the state liquor license inspectors and the city authorities to rid the city of illegal liquor dealing.

James Smith and Jennie Powell were brought before Mayor Dahl Saturday on charges of furnishing intoxicating liquors and were fined $200 and costs each which they paid.

Other cases will be taken up during the coming week.

A BEAUTIFUL POEM

It is with much pleasure that The Herald publishes the following beautiful poem dedicated "To My Son, Corporal Harland G. Beatty, Jr., 149th Field Artillery, Battery E, American Expeditionary Forces," by his mother.

Corporal Beatty is a grandson of Mrs. Nancy Beatty of Washington avenue.

Dear boy of mine, I am thinking of you.
Mother and loved ones are lonely.
How are you dear? I wish you were here
That would be "comfy" and "homey."

I think of you now in the great "over there"

God keep you safe, is my earnest prayer.
Sorrow, is world wide, but, bring joy to me

Dear boy of mine, come back to me,
I'll await your return with great pride in my heart

And think of your boyhood days,
Oh! Soldier boy, you're doing a man's part

God bless and keep you always.

As I look back on childhood days,
As mothers love to do

What more could I ask for a boy of mine?
Than to be brave and true.

Oh! son, I am proud of you
And though it has been hard to part
There is One who knows of the pride and love

That over flows my heart.

Dear boy, we all are in His care
And 'til the victory is won.

Let us each strive to do our share
And say "Thy will be done."

—Mother.

TESTED RECIPES FOR WAR TIMES

(NOTE—Send in YOUR recipes.

Mail or bring them to the Herald office. This column will be kept alive just as long as sufficient recipes are received. Editor.)

Oatmeal Cookies

1 tablespoon vegetable oil; ½ cup honey; 1 egg; 1½ cups oatmeal; ¼ teaspoon salt; 1½ tablespoons rice flour; ½ teaspoon baking powder.

Combine the oil, honey and beaten egg. Stir in the other ingredients. Drop from a teaspoon on a greased pan or baking sheet and bake in a moderate oven about 15 minutes.

A Fancy Oatmeal Bread

½ cup prunes; 1½ cups cold water; ½ cup rolled oats; ½ tablespoon salt; ¼ cup chopped nuts; ½ yeast cake, softened in ¼ cup lukewarm water; 2½ cups flour, or more if needed.

Soak the prunes in cold water overnight. Cook in same water until soft, and remove stones. To prune juice add boiling water to make one cup, bringing to boiling point and pour over rolled oats. Let stand one hour, add salt, chopped nuts, yeast softened in the lukewarm water, and the prunes. Then add flour, mix thoroughly, let rise, turn into greased bread pan let rise again and bake.

Indian Pudding

4 cups milk; ¼ cup cornmeal; 1-3 cup molasses; ¼ teaspoon salt; ¾ teaspoon ginger.

Cook the milk and the meal in a double boiler for 20 minutes; add molasses, salt and ginger. Pour into greased pudding dish and bake 2 hours in a slow oven. Serve with top milk. This amount will serve six persons.

FAMOUS MUMMY ORDERED INTERRED

The famous "Lima Mummy" which created such a sensation at the Fall Festivals at Hillsboro and Wilmington two years ago, was ordered buried by the Health Officer at Lima recently. Local interest attaches itself to the circumstances because a Fayette county man believed the body to be that of his son who disappeared prior to the time when the body was found in a barn and mummified by a fluid discovered by a Lima undertaker. The body was found in Northwestern Ohio, and was exhibited in every city of considerable size in the United States as a midway attraction. The Fayette county man identified the body by a scar on the head of the man believed to have been inflicted when he was a boy.—Lansburg Citizen.

One Week of Battle

The great battle in France which opened one week ago today with the German offensive, is yet undecided.

The fury and force of the German drive has died down very markedly. The British lines, against which the full force of the blow was directed, are still intact. Only a comparatively small part of the French forces has participated in the struggle and that at, or near, the point where the British and French lines join.

So far as any decisive victory is concerned, so far as securing any gains either in territory or guns captured, likely to be a determining factor even in the present titanic battle, the German drive has failed utterly to realize the purpose of the German general staff.

The bombastic announcements coming out of Berlin and the scores of congratulatory messages forwarded by the Kaiser, all intended to cheer up the disheartened German people and to discourage the allied nations, were expected by the world and, whatever their effect in Germany may have been, the world has accepted them at their true value and has not been deceived.

The curtain of secrecy has been drawn closely over the operations of the allied forces. No official estimate of losses or gains or intentions has as yet come from the army of liberty on the western front.

Only the most general statements have been made, but every one of these has breathed optimism and confidence.

People of the allied nations have taken on confidence too and refused to become discouraged over the gain of valueless terrain by the German forces. Somehow there is confidence that at the proper time the allies will strike back with a counter offensive which will have a decisive effect on the present battle and on the war.

Germany has paid a frightful price in killed and wounded to obtain her empty "victories."

That the allied commanders have had a definite plan throughout and that they have not been compelled to abandon that plan is accepted, generally, as true and is the greatest source of encouragement to the anxious world.

Now that the curtain of secrecy is to be drawn still closer we must hold fast to our confidence and our belief that the cheering announcement from Paris, "so far as Germany is concerned the battle is lost; so far as the allies are concerned, the battle is just commencing," is fully warranted by facts which have not yet been made public.

The most difficult task now for the people of the allied nations is to maintain their confidence in the absence of specific statement of fact or open promise.

Changing the Clocks

The change of time which is to occur this (Saturday) evening at 8 o'clock has, strange to say, furnished the subject for no end of discussion and not a little misunderstanding.

There isn't a thing intricate about the plan—there can't be any confusion result, unless with people who insist upon making confusion of a perfectly simple matter.

All the householder need do is to see that all the clocks and watches, for which he is responsible, are moved up just one hour tonight at eight o'clock then proceed to go on about his business just as usual. He goes to work by the clock and quits by the clock just as he does now. He gets up by the clock, goes to bed by the clock and eats at the usual time, just as he does now. The trains run just as they do now. Business will be conducted on just the same time as it is now, absolutely no change in time.

Time now days is an arbitrary matter—fixed by law and we get our time from the clocks and watches. Whatever time the clock says it is—that's the time.

When we, a long time ago, got our time from the sun, it wasn't easy to change time because we couldn't move the sun ahead one hour in the spring and hold it back an hour in the fall.

The change is made so as to give us more hours of time during the daylight periods.

We need do nothing save move the clocks and watches up one hour at 8 o'clock this evening and then go "on our way."

There is nothing else to change, nothing to explain, nothing to argue about and positively nothing to misunderstand or be confused about.

Poetry For Today

RESURRECTION

The soft air breathes away the snow
 From the dead and buried earth.
 She stirs with strange, sweet joy to know

The mystic awe and pain of birth;
 With life in everything
 The early blossoms frail and fair
 With gentle faces peep to see
 If in this lucid, "golden air"
 The oaken buds have burst forth free,
 And robins are awing.

And in this season was a day
 Christ's passion sealed as sacred time,
 To shrine its memory away,
 To chant its love in endless chime,
 Day signed by cruel Cross.
 And then there dawned glad Easter-tide,
 The Lord of Life appeared anew,
 Chained captive death and opened wide
 Heaven's glad some portal free to you—
 Eternal gain for Time's brief loss.

Dear Christ! we need this hopeful creed,
 This ancient, everlasting faith;
 Our flesh, our hearts how sore they bleed!
 Death is so real, life seems a wrath
 Before war's awful Calvary.

O! Lord of life and love and might Speak clear above the battle-strife
 "Souls of men and nations fight,
 With me ye die, with me have life,
 For all men's Easter Liberty.
 Our travail shall not be in vain—
 Your woe and mine a unity—
 From death we do arise to reign
 Amid a world wide freedomrie,
 All earth and heaven alive in me."

—Dr. A. M. Courtenay.

75 KILLED IN PARIS

Paris, March 30.—Seventy-five persons were killed and 90 wounded, most of them women and children, when a shell fired by a German long-range gun fell on a church in the region of Paris while Good Friday services were being held, according to an official communication. Among those killed was H. Strohlin, counselor of the Swiss legation in Paris. The same church was struck by a shell during the celebration of high mass last Sunday and many casualties resulted.

The killing of the women and children who were praying in the church has caused a feeling of horror and intense indignation in Paris. The German explosive missile fell amid an assemblage of peace-loving people who were beseeching heaven to send an enduring peace on the day they were commemorating the greatest sacrifice ever offered that peace should reign on earth.

A RAW, SORE THROAT

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole.

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds on the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use. 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

Saltin' It Down

Where I was "brung up" folks fattened a hog from early spring to late fall, and had hams, sides of bacon and pork for the winter. They called the preparatory process "saltin' it down."

Many of us folks will see the Winter of Life. Some will find it a long, cold, hard one.

Others who practiced "Saltin' it Down" in Life's early Spring will spend Life's Winter snug and snug at Palm Beach—figuratively, at least. Start "Saltin' it Down" now and here—in the bank that gave you the hunch.

DELCO-LIGHT

Increases Farm Efficiency

1. Saves time and labor—Work formerly done under poor light and by hand can be done better and in less time with the aid of electric light and power.
2. Labor is attracted to the farm—The "back to the farm" movement is made practical when the conveniences afforded by electric light and power can be had in the country.
3. Keeps the boys and girls on the farm—Electric service on the farm offsets city attractions. Valuable labor and valuable young manhood and womanhood are saved to the country community.
4. Solves the retired farmer problem—Electric light and power make the farm home so attractive and comfortable that the farmer and his wife remain on the farm where their advice, experience, and immediate interests are of great practical value.
5. Lightens burden of the housewife—Increased farm work in war times means increased labor for the housewife. Electricity offers the only practical means of taking the drudgery of household tasks from her shoulders.

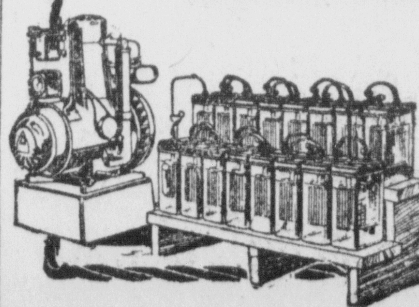

Delco-Light is a compact electric plant for farms or country homes. Self-cranking. Air-cooled. Thick plate, long-lived battery. Ball bearings. No belts. RUNS ON KEROSENE

FAYETTE SELECTS LEAVE FOR CAMP FOUR MEN ABSENT

Usual Scenes Attend Departure of Men, Although More Cheerfulness Is Apparent—Four Men Fail to Receive Notice in Time to Depart.

Fayette's last contingent of the first quota of selects left for Camp Sherman on the 9:00 o'clock B. & O. train Saturday amid the shouts and well wishes of their friends. Sweethearts, wives and mothers did not give way to tears as their usual custom, but were dry eyed and smiling as the train arrived and the men marched aboard a splendid tribute to their bravery in offering their loved ones for the defense of America and for the freedom of humanity.

The men from Montgomery and Green counties as well as Fayette's boys were in high spirits and joking as if a "trip to Berlin" via Camp Sherman was a usual occurrence and not the biggest event of a life time.

On the cars were the usual light heartedness on the surface at least, but underneath was the grim determination to see the war through.

One man from Dayton declared as the train left that he might come back peg legged, but he would be living.

Frank M. Fullerton was at the station dispensing cheer with cigars and sandwiches, and had little Ford Rumer to sing a song about Germany and the Allies to the tune of "Casey Jones" that was heartily appreciated by Fayette's soldiers-to-be.

23 regular selectmen and two voluntarily inducted were to have gone, but as 4 did not receive notice that they were chosen they failed to arrive and will go to Camp Sherman sometime next week, probably Tuesday. The non appearance of the four men is no reflection on their patriotism, but due to the fact that they did not receive notice in time, as the schedule reached the Local Board late Thursday evening.

VOYAGE ACROSS VIVIDLY PICTURED BY LT. MARSHALL

Maurice Marshall, Son of the Late J. R. Marshall, Writes of His Experiences in Crossing the Submarine Infested Atlantic.

The following very interesting letter has been received by Miss Nellie Marshall of this city from her brother Maurice Marshall, who is now somewhere in France, a lieutenant in a corps of United States Engineers.

It is understood that Lieut. Marshall with his company were ordered to board the Tuscania but the day before sailing his company was quarantined which proved to be fortunate as the Tuscania was sunk by a submarine.

Somewhere on the Atlantic.

Dear Sister: Somewhere on the Atlantic is right. I have no more idea where I am than a rabbit. We are right in the midst of a big gale and sis if I get back to the U. S. A. I don't want to see "any other boat" I am glad I am here for always been curious to know what a storm at sea is like. I know now and have no further desire in that direction. A fellow can't stand up. I am either standing on my head or on the flat of my back. You can't stay in your berth without holding on and the dishes roll all over the table. The chairs and table we fled down and the latter have side boards on to keep the dishes from going on the floor. The waves come clear over the deck and they sure are huge some of them look as big as the court house, was up in the Crow's nest at the top of the mast, it is great but a pretty hard climb. These glasses of mine are fine and I can see as far as anyone, glad I have them. We had fine weather at first and I was afraid it would not get rough, but now I want it to get smooth again. Another thing we heard about is seasickness, and I don't want to see any more of that. We have lots of it and it is fierce.

I am feeling fine and eating like a horse. We certainly have fine meals, as good as any hotel, and music with them. The boys have organized an orchestra and quartette. They are very good, have a piano and all kinds of stringed instruments. Saw a big school of porpoises the other day and also several awful big fish of some kind, they must have been 15 ft. long and some sperm whales on top of the water. We have our morning newspaper every morning at breakfast, news comes by wireless and gives all the latest. This certainly is an age of wonders. Was out on deck awhile ago and a big wave nearly smothered me, thought I was drowned for a minute, and had to change all my clothes. Have a fine shower bath in my stateroom and take a good hot salt bath every night. This life is pretty nice to what we had at Belvoir. By jolly I was glad to get away from that place. Am going to eat drink and be merry here, for God knows what we will get wherever we are going. Am not worrying about it either. Two of us have the same stateroom, Lieut. McClain, from Williamsport, Pa. He is sick ("sea-sick") and a pitiful looking object. I had to put him in the lower berth for I do not want any performance of that nature going on above me. It's so "darn" funny I can't help but laugh, but it must be awful.

We have a peach of a boat, and I am not afraid of any storm, but its blamed inconvenient and uncomfortable to be pitching around so. A wave smashed one of the watch houses on the deck and broke the guard's jaw that was on duty some of them sound like a cannon when they hit the boat. I like to get on the top deck and watch them break, they come to a crest and break into foam, which in turn changes to a light sky blue color. Some of them are beautiful. I have been writing this a little at a time and it will no doubt read a little funny, but you will know why I can't tell you everything now, but will when I get back.

We are having a wonderful day the sea has calmed down and the sun out, which is certainly a welcome sight, after what we have gone through. Have been on deck nearly all day and enjoyed it immensely. If it was fair weather all the time an ocean trip would not be half bad, but in a storm it is fierce. Saw a Norwegian freighter bound for the U. S. and I will be tickled to death when I am bound the same way.

The wind is up again and a pretty rough sea running, but nothing like we had.

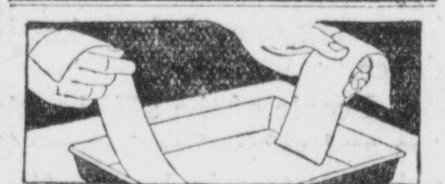

Have become quite chummy with the chief engineer and been down in engine room. Talk about machinery they sure have some here, it is a great sight. The chief has lived on the sea about all his life and very interesting to talk to. He traded me sea tales for land tales, I don't know which of us told the biggest. I won't care when we land for the trip is getting tiresome I get tired of seeing nothing but water and motion of the ship. Just came in from the deck where I have been sunning myself. It's a peach of a day, bright sunshine and a smooth sea, or as smooth as they get.

I am feeling fine as a fiddle. Now whatever you do don't worry about me, I'll be all right and come back better than when I left. I hope it will be soon too for I want to get back in business again and in God's country, also don't think that Europe will hold any attraction for me.

Be sure you give Mr. Lindsey my best. I discovered one of the privates in my company was a lumber salesman, I had him come up and sleep in my stateroom. We had a lounge that wasn't working and he was very grateful to get it. The boys are fine fellows and come from mighty good families. They are a game lot to and will give a good account of themselves at whatever they are to do. The sea has been perfect today and one can see a great distance. Saw a lot of porpoises playing and quite a bit of wreckage, barrels and boxes one chair a door and various other things. We expect to land tomorrow evening and I won't be sorry. Wear my life preserver wherever I go and am greatly attached to it. Hope I won't need it but am ready, if I do. I may get a chance to write a little more tomorrow, but will be pretty busy. I want you to write often and address all letters in care of American Ex. Forces via. New York. Be sure and put Co. C. 5th Battalion 20th Engineers on them.

Well sis we are off the French coast land on both sides of us and the danger is past for "subs". It's a beautiful sight this morning as well as a very welcome one. Was on deck at daylight. Sea planes flying all about.

two balloons, any number of boats of all descriptions and a beautiful shore. The weather is fine and I never felt better. The boys are all jubilant and on deck yelling their heads off. We came over with two other ships convoyed by a cruiser and a flock of destroyers, which are the watch dogs of the sea. Will probably not get an opportunity to write more in this as I will be pretty busy preparing to land. Will write soon as I can find time and as often as possible.

THE DAYLIGHT SAVING PLAN IS AT HAND

Aims of the New Law Explained. Has Been Successful and Popular Wherever Tried.

By Associated Press Dispatch

Columbus, O., March 30.—The daylight saving plan of moving the clock forward an hour beginning at midnight tonight, will give Ohio's two and a half million industrial workers nearly a full month of working hours in which they will have actual sunlight time off. They will profit in daylight hours to the extent of nearly 25 eight-hour working days.

In the 12 European countries that have found the plan of advancing the clock during the summer months practical and efficient, it has been proved the increased manufacturing production and improvement in working conditions followed immediately upon its adoption. With even a slight improvement in production by each individual, in times such as these when every energy is bent toward getting the very maximum, Ohio's great industrial army will turn out uncounted thousands of dollars worth more from her factories and mines than under the present system.

Just how much the saving in this state will be in the matter of fuel and light, none has attempted to estimate. It has been said that New York city, with less population than Ohio, would save a million and a half dollars in gas bills alone in a year by moving the clock forward. Ohio, using natural gas extensively, doubtless will save, if this is true, at least a million dollars in the seven months that daylight saving will last.

The item of light saved will be within itself, an enormous one in this state. There are hundreds of automobiles, airplane and other industrial plants, scores of war-material manufacturing institutions and countless ones of other nature that have been forced, under the old system to burn lights an hour or two each day. Fuel to make this light will be saved. With the memory of the past winter fuel famine, the worst in two decades, Ohio can appreciate conservation in this field, if none other was effected.

To the householder the matter of light saving will be important—perhaps all-important. There will be far fewer big gas and electric light bills to pay for there will be an average of 30 hours less service to pay for each month in each home. When the last estimate was made in 1910, Ohio had 1,318,165 families. If each saved 30 hours from light bills each month for seven months, the state would reap a benefit of $238,994, 650 hours which otherwise would be artificial light hours. And if the saving amounted to but one cent an hour, the item of light bills saved would amount to nearly two and a half million dollars.

In home-making there is another item to be considered, for more daylight hours at home will mean more war gardens more recreation and consequently better general health. By giving the home gardener an extra hour of daylight in which to care for his war garden, Ohio's production from vacant lot patches should double the wonderful production that helped swat the high cost of living last year. Reduced to war savings stamps, the state probably can save enough to plaster a whole German province from her vacant lot gardens alone.

Daylight saving will be of more benefit in cities than in rural districts. In active summer months farmers work as early and as late as there is light as a rule. Consequently, in a state such as Ohio, in which a greater percent of the population is centered in cities of 10,000 or more, the moving forward of the clock will be of more material benefit than in many sister states.

Most Ohio cities are industrial centers rather than farming or livestock centers. Sixteen have a population of 25,000 or more, while the total population of the 16 is 2,153,500. Hence Ohio will benefit by the daylight saving scheme perhaps more than any other state save New York or Pennsylvania.

FIVE AUCTIONEERS HAVE BEEN ENGAGED FOR RED CROSS WORK

Five auctioneers—Cols. Scott, Eckles, Minshall, Titus and Ferguson, have been engaged for the Red Cross Auction to be held in Jeffersonville Saturday, April 6th, beginning at ten o'clock in the morning and continuing until the last article is sold to the highest bidder.

Plans have been made for roping off an entire square of the main street and this will be filled with booths, stands and pens to hold what will be the greatest assortment of saleable goods ever accumulated in the county.

Lovers of high class country produce will find plenty of it, as the farmers and their families around Jeffersonville have been unstinted in their gifts for the big auction, and the Jeffersonville citizens have also done equally well in giving an abundance.

To date there has been given everything from a registered hog, colt or cow, to an old speckled hen, glass of jelly or pocket knife. Some of the articles are: oats, wheat, corn, potatoes, beans, peas, chickens, ducks, geese, horses, cattle, hogs, suits of clothes, clover seed, timothy seed, flour, cakes, jellies, preserves, canned goods of all kinds, butter, eggs, automobile tires, boots, shoes, cured meats, washing machine, pies, lard, dishes, war saving stamps, hardware, groceries, dry goods and a host of other articles.

It is expected that the auction will draw citizens from all over the county.

ANOTHER PRO-GERMAN FALSEHOOD IS NAILED

Another falsehood, evidently started by some pro-German in Fayette county, has been nailed.

This time the report was that certain officers and workers in the Fayette County Chapter of the Red Cross were drawing salaries for their part in the work.

There is not a word of truth in the report, as no person connected with the Red Cross in this city is drawing a single cent for services. And furthermore—at no time since the work was started has a single cent been paid in salaries to any workers.

Such reports have been circulated in other parts of the country, due to clever German propaganda, and in each instance the falsehood has been promptly exploded.

Baby Chicks By Mail!

The Government is making every effort to encourage the profitable raising of Poultry and as a part of that effort is DELIVERING CHICKS BY MAIL—ACTUALLY PLACING the BABY CHICKS IN YOUR HAND.

HOW IS THAT DONE?

Simplest thing in the world. Send us any amount of money you choose to pay for Baby Chicks at rate of $1.50 per dozen. Send the money by your mail carrier. That's all you need do and then your mail carrier, no matter where you live, under special government instruction, will deliver the Baby Chicks to you. He will not leave them in the mail box, but will bring them to your door and place them in your hands.

There is no other expense and there is nothing else at all for you to do. You need not even write a letter. Nothing could be simpler than this plan the government has adopted. Get busy and make money and help win the war by raising chickens.

UH-HUM!!!

BY COLLY! SHE HASN'T TAKEN HER EYES OFF ME ALL EVENING—SHE CERTAINLY IS A BEAUT!

SAY—WHO IS THAT SWELL LOOKIN' GIRL STANDIN' NEAR THAT TABLE?

I DON'T KNOW HER NAME.

SHE'S A DETECTIVE I HIRED TO WATCH THE WEDDING PRESENTS.

GOOD NIGHT!
